

Reforms at a glance – What do I need to do?

Stronger regulation is coming to the cosmetic surgery industry from 1 July 2023.

Cosmetic surgery involves cutting beneath the skin – including breast augmentation, facelifts and liposuction.

Non-surgical cosmetic procedures may pierce the skin but don't cut beneath it – including cosmetic injectables, thread lifts and laser treatments.

Registered medical practitioners who perform cosmetic surgery

Stronger guidance, higher standards

From 1 July 2023

Make sure your practice complies with updated rules. Updates include:

- GP referrals required
- Number and type of patient consultations (in person and video)
- Better patient assessment using BDD tools
- Informed consent
- Fly in/fly out practice
- Limits on NDAs
- Standards in training & experience
- CPD requirements
- Accredited facilities required

This list is not exhaustive. Read the detail in: Guidelines for registered medical practitioners who perform cosmetic surgery and procedures

Tougher advertising rules

From 1 July 2023

Review and clean up your advertising – websites, social media and past posts.

Make sure your advertising complies with new rules. Guidance includes:

- Specific consent for using patient's image in ads
- No testimonials
- Use of social media influencers
- Use of single and 'before and after' images
- No sexualised images
- Taglines and hashtags
- Use of non-clinical terms and descriptors
- Use of emojis
- Include your registration type in ads

This list is not exhaustive. Read the detail in: Guidelines for registered medical practitioners who advertise cosmetic surgery

Area of practice endorsement

Cosmetic surgery endorsement to help patients know who is trained and qualified for safer cosmetic surgery.

New endorsement registration standard starts 1 July 2023.

Approved qualifications coming soon.

Applications later in 2023.

No action needed now.

Registration standard: Endorsement of registration of registered medical practitioners for the approved area of cosmetic surgery

Title protection

Coming soon. Legal changes will restrict the title 'surgeon' to medical practitioners with specialist registration in:

- surgery
- obstetrics and gynaecology
- ophthalmology.

Registered medical practitioners who perform non-surgical cosmetic procedures
